Merging Layers The Merge Layers command (Ctrl+K, or ⌘-K) merges one or more layers into a single layer. This command may be easier to use than selectively merging an entire layer, as an alternative to using the individual layer's Erase or Delete tool. If the layers to be combined overlap, the selection in any of the layers is deleted and all of the layers are combined. * * * # Layers in Photoshop **Image-editing software** has layers to represent every layer in a

A blog for those who suffer from simple attention deficit hyperactivity disorder (ADHD). Thursday, July 21, 2007 Attention deficit disorder (ADD) On V-day, when everyone was "making up for the fact that they're not having sex", I saw a terrible movie about ADD. It was called "Flightplan." It's about a woman named April who has ADD, but takes meds for it, which make her sleepy, when she needs to be alert. She takes these meds as long as she can remember. Now, to be fair to this movie, the star was a beautiful woman. However, the rest of the movie is pretty far out. The woman begins with a loving husband who spends a lot of time with their two children. We also see April go to her shrink, and a doctor, where both recommend the same thing, not meds, but prescription stimulants. However, this upsets her completely. It also upsets her family when she acts crazy and even runs into the street at night to look at the stars. She is also known for being very sensitive. She can't understand how other people can do things so badly without any bad intentions. But, of course, she is soon guilty by association. Her family calls her a whiner, and April stops seeing the doctor. Her husband says he wants a divorce. Finally, after staying up all night watching a movie, she calls 911 and tells them that she is being threatened, but nothing is done. Then, as she is driving on the highway, she hits a guy driving a car and injures him. After apologizing, she is taken to jail, and is sentenced to serve six months in jail for probation. The man sues her. She has trouble getting a lawyer because of her financial situation. But she has a great lawyer who also recommends meds, which she refuses to take. The movie ends with her admitting that she is a drug addict, and has probably been in jail and jail for ten years, all because she couldn't pay her lawyer. In short, she had a great lawyer, but she has gone to jail because she couldn't pay. I would recommend this movie to anyone who has ADHD, especially those who have ADD. It is called "Flightplan" because she missed her flight, and it is referred to as such in one scene. The script is very deep and thought-provoking. It's a shame it won't

Q: Regular Expression to get everything after the last '/' Hi guys can any one tell me, how can i write regular expression to get everything after the last '/'? Example: string.format("Main/{0}/{1}/{2}/{3}/{4}/{5}/{6}/{7}/{8}/{9}/{10}/{11}/{12}", param, param1, param2, param3, param4, param5, param6, param7, param8, param9, param10, param11, param12); Note: param1,param2,param3... is some dynamic value, and it can take any value, and this can repeats at any point in time. A: This is what you are looking for - string pattern = @"Main(V{1,})"; Back to the future, baby! "I'm back for Season 6!!!" says Taylor Hautala, as she stands on the set of "Beverly Hills P.D." Last season, 17-year-old Hautala played a little girl named Carmen's friend, who is accidentally hit by a bus, and goes to heaven with her after she dies. Carmen is best friends with character, Eddie, played by former "Beverly Hills, 90210" star Jason Priestley. This season,
